buildings. American army and navy pump trucks helped Japanese firemen fight the blaze.

Two children, the 3-year-old son of a man first class Peter J. La Mirande, were burned to death late yesterday in a fire which swept a cabin at Gardner's Inn near Olinth, Kan.

La Mirande, who is stationed at Gowen Field air base, is a Bond A. resident.

At Baltimore the search continued today for victims in the fire which raced through the building owned by the Maryland Fire Protection Company.

The walls on two top floors collapsed just as firemen had brought the blaze under control. Many of the men were hurled onto the burning floor.

In Chicago, the death toll in a skid road hotel last Saturday rose to 28 as wreckers found two more bodies in the rubble.

GOP Sets Confab At San Francisco

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17 (UPI)—San Francisco, which entered the picture as a second contender only after the city was selected as the host city for the 1968 Republican presidential nominating convention.

The anomalous choice by a seven-member subcommittee of the Republican national committee is subject to ratification by the full committee, but leaders said this was only formalities.

The full committee met yesterday.

The Republican subcommittee recommended that the San Francisco convention open Aug. 20, which would be the same date as the Democratic national convention.

Democrats have tentatively selected July 23, with hopes of changing it to Aug. 13.

Firm Bids Second On Hospital Plans

REYNOLDS, Feb. 17—A band of contractors were the second lowest bidders for the construction of a new addition to the Idaho state mental hospital at Buhl.

The child burglar who only 30 cents in a fountain pen and a handful of metal samples valued at $518.

The children evaded the cameras because they entered through a narrow window opening and because of the nature of the roof.

They climbed the drainpipe to the roof and entered the window, Scotland Yard said.

Construction is scheduled to begin 90 days after the award of the contract and will be completed within 60 days. The new building will double the hospital's capacity to 160 beds.

TUCKER'S NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

WASHINGTON.—A park barrel brawl involving President Eisenhower, the United States Steel corporation and Pennsylvania Republicans has boiled up afresh behind the scenes on capitol hill. It is one of the strangest political-economic quarrels in several years, with Ike bucking normally against his party's "OOP-ist" big interests.

The story begins in chapter 10 of the proposed deepening of the Delaware river between Philadelphia and Trenton. Over the Pennsylvanians' protests, the President has signed a bill authorizing $100 million interest in 100 million dollars of the total $1 billion dollar cost. Otherwise, they will oppose the project.

Rep. Tucker. LOCAL CONTRIBUTIONS TO PROJECT.—I tried to explain and justify his stand at a recent press conference, but he was obviously unfamiliar with all the facts. He declared that whenever internal improvements benefited a certain state, the regional interests, public and private, should pay a percentage of the costs.

His handling of local contributions has been interpreted as being down on an entirely new theory for financing major federal projects. In the past, the government has paid for them on the theory that what helped one large area strengthened the national economy, and, therefore, was a legitimate federal charge.

IKE'S PRONOUNCEMENT.—It is true that the army engineers, who run a determined lobby at Washington, have frequently persuaded local interests to kick in for dredging rivers and harbors, or beautifying the waterfront. But it is plain that the new approach is something new and general policy on a national level. In fact, he did declare that his formula for the Delaware improvement should be applied to all federal undertakings.

Pennsylvania Republicans, industries, newspapers and civic groups raised a howl of protest.

FACTS OF MATTER.—The President did not know—or dispute—all the facts in the controversy, which are these:

When the Delaware deepening was first proposed, the program contemplated only a 35-foot channel. But when U. S. Steel built the new Fairless plant at Morrisville, Pa., it found that its ore-carrying vessels required a 40-foot depth. The additional cost of 15 million dollars.

In demanding that "local interests" contribute this amount, neither Eisenhower nor the budget bureau had identified the corporation's special interest fully and frankly.

DEPARTMENTS GOVERNMENT FINANCE.

—The house public works committee agreed with Eisenhower, Rep. John J. Dempsey, New Mexico Democrat, and Rep. George A. Dondero, Republican of Michigan, former Senate chairman, in the fight over a $3 billion contribution of 16 million dollars. That measure would have put the house "out of pocket."

But the chairman of the senate public works committee is Sen. Edward Martin, Pennsylvania. When the Senate agriculture committee met to iron out the anti-sulfur fuel measure and the producer-seller enactment, Martin demanded that the amendment be stricken. Otherwise, he said, there would be no minimum sulfur barrel, rivers and harbors legislation at this session.

SENATOR'S MANEUVER WORKED.—Since 40 other states had regional or beneficial projects in the pipeline, Martin's holding maneuver worked. House and senate passed it as he wanted it and forwarded it to the White House for approval.

But the public works bill amounts to only an authorization for the Delaware deepening. It carries no money. Opponents are now buttonholing members of the house appropriations committee to prevent it from being included in the omnibus bill of the entire bill.

It is recalled, ironically, that last year this grumble Republican Gibraltar elected a Democratic governor.

VIEWS OF OTHERS

DAD, WHAT'S A TREATY?

Although all of the courts of the land, from district courts to that of the highest and final appeal—the United States supreme court of America—have spoken, and HAVE upheld the treaty of 1855 which gives Nez Perce Indians the right to hunt and fish on public domain where and when they please, still effort is made to get the Indians to give up their hunting grounds. Most recent is the appeal of a fish and game committee of the Idaho house of representatives to congress asking the treaty be examined and ignored.

In so many words, the committee without documentation accuses the Nez Perces of "warrior killing" of Indians and Indians of "at least 100,000 Indians" that the committee requests is another nail in the coffin of misunderstanding between the Indians and whites. It denies that tribe members as a whole are guilty of charges the committee apparently has made without evidence.

As far as the Nez Perces realize, that not all members of the Nez Perce race are perfect but, he adds, certainly, there are all members of either race.

Our recollection of the Indian hunting rights case is that it started in Idaho county four years ago when game department officials and the Indians agreed to a test of the law. The principals agreed to accept the decision of Alton, Idaho, who then weighed the merits and finally gave in to demands. In some places, thoughtful men have called this "the American way."

The case ground through the legal mills and every decision, the courts upheld the inviolable pledge of the treaty made in 1855. At the creation of the state of Idaho, that is, the end of 1889, Idaho agreed a year ago by Idaho attorney general when he concluded that because other treaties had been deliberately broken, it would be in the public interest to break the treaty of 1855. Apparently, now, the Idaho legislature is attempting an approach on the same technicalities.

Then, with this as a precedent, what is to prevent the state and the nation from defaulting on every pledge ever made if the shoe pinches the wearer? And, to whom would the Nez Perces turn if they had been on the losing end of the agreement?

Even though the Indians are like any other people, and the Indians are like any other people, it is likely a truly nearly a century old, let us at least hear the white man's pledge with dignity and respect.

POT SHOTS

OUGHTA BE A LAW . . .

This idea developed out of a little discussion the other day between the author and a friend who was passing along. These guys were passing along about the legislature, and what it was doing and what a fine bunch of horse-tracker apes to be elected to represent us all.

So finally one guy comes up with an idea. Well try to brief it down. He thought the legislature should meet for five weeks and then adjourn. All possible bills should be passed in that period of time. Then the idea was for the legislature to adjourn for two weeks. During that two-week period, legislators would determine what the majority of their constituents wanted in way of legislation.

Then they'd all go back to work for three weeks (maximum) and legal session, layed over by a recess of two weeks. This is the plan of the state.

The originator of that idea explained. "The objective is to get away from the old business of trading a colleague for a commission."

HOW THINGS APPEAR FROM PEGLER'S ANGLE

I suspect that I have come upon the secret of the Ford foundation to subdue the attack. It was sailing for Sweden to "get the boys out of the trenches by Christmas."

Not that is pertinent, Hugh Ballie, president of the Chippendales and a master of wear-and-tear as vice president thereof some years ago, also landed in the UP office in the old World Building the same day. Our friend, however, was Brenton Bradley, writer of rippling verse in the idiom of Grantland Rice, Jimmy Montague and Wallace Irwin, a forgotten art deserving a reading.

Not that is pertinent, Hugh Ballie, president of the Chippendales and a master of wear-and-tear as vice president thereof some years ago, also landed in the UP office in the old World Building the same day. Do-It-Yourselfers Learn To Antique Modern Furniture

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK, Feb. 17. (UPI)—The do-it-yourselfer point of view is now your own Chippendale and antiques furniture.

The odds are that your home neighbor "discover-ed" some antique store or a famous barn and bought it at a price.

"Often the pieces are fakes," Boyle says.

"However, there are some antiques that are real."

"There are some antiques that are real."

Upper House Clears Bill to Reopen SICE

Sixty Democrats and 11 Republicans voted to restore SICE to its former status; 11 Republicans and three Democrats opposed the bill.

Rep. Dan Emery, D., New Perce, and accrued enrollment funds to the $200,000 appropriation for NICKC would make a total of $45,000 for the bimillennial. It would train elementary teachers who would be administered by the board of trustees through the University of Idaho.

Rep. Clarence Vining, R., Chubbuck, and 10 others voted to add a rider to the bill that year to fill a need for about $800. Rep. Jay Merrill, R., Twin Falls, countered that 80 per cent of the graduates of SICE left the state, and the action would be "robbing the universities of funds to a point where they can't expand."

Rep. Perry Swigert, R., Hailey, called by both Idaho State legislators and denied what he said were statements that the funds would come from the 1966 budget. He said he left the state, and the action would be "robbing the universities of funds to a point where they can't expand."

The bill was referred to the Senate Education Committee.

Sen. Henry G. Dworshak, R., Boise, under federal indictment on a charge he wrote falsely that he was not a communist, has resigned as secretary-treasurer of the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers (Ind.).

Travis said he quit because the national labor relations board had denied his union the right to participate in elections and the right to collective bargaining facilities of the NLB.

Blocked by Court
The NLRB had withdrawn rights on the ground that Travis is a son of a communist that he was not a communist.

The board's action, however, has been blocked by the U. S. Court of Appeals in Washington, which ruled that the NLRB cannot deny its facilities to anyone as a whole merely because one official files a false non-communist oath.

Travis is free on bond and no trial date has been set.

Successor Named

Albert Pessati, who has been executive board member for the union in districts 4 and 5, has been elected to succeed him. New Jersey and Maryland will replace Travis, the union's executive board said.

The union, which had its headquarters here until 1960, will move to Atlanta, Ga., next year. It contended the Mine-Mill leadership showed command influences.

Similar Ruling

The court in Washington also ruled against a similar case involving Ben Gold, president of the International Fur and Leather Workers Union. Gold was convicted last April of perjury in his 1960 trial.

This court action left the NLRB with the alternative of asking the supreme court to overturn the ruling or asking Congress to tighten the law. Gold, however, failed to file a non-communist affidavit.

Turnpike Bill To Get Study

BOISE, Feb. 17 (UPI)—The state highway board promised yesterday to study a bill setting up a state turnpike commission and give the legislature its views if asked.

An American delegation from the Lewis-Clerk highway in Washington and Oregon called a hearing yesterday to know the route of an interstate highway to be built through the Minidoka project, so it could plan its canals and laterals accordingly. It said it would check with the bureau of public roads about the matter.

NLRB Fettered By Court Action

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17 (UPI)—The national labor relations board has been held in contempt to act as a referee in a dispute between the AFL-CIO and a union if the union officially files a false non-communist oath.

Audt. said the U. S. court of appeals in a surprising unanimous opinion, handed down yesterday, that the difference if the union's membership is aware of the false swearing.

This left the government with the alternative of asking the supreme court to overturn the ruling or asking Congress to tighten the Taft-Hartley labor relations act, which requires labor unions to file a non-communist affidavit.

But for the time being, at least, the NLRB appeared to be blocked in its efforts to strip turns certain unions of their right to take part in collective bargaining negotiations on the ground their officials had falsely denied red ties.

Flaws in Planes Found by X-Ray

THE MAGIE THE Netherlands Feb. 17 (UPI)—NLM Royal Dutch Airlines said today it is experiencing with an X-ray apparatus for inspecting wings and cables of planes to detect flaws.

X-ray machines have already proved the method saves time and money, but making expensive dismantling unnecessary. The X-ray locate even the slightest irregularity, the company said.

IF YOU HAVE BEEN LED TO BELIEVE THAT TRADING STAMPS "COST YOU NOTHING,"
WE ASK THAT YOU READ THIS STATEMENT
ON THE SUBJECT FROM A DECISION BY THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT:

"If companies — evolved from the system, — are able to reap a profit from it, it may well be thought there is something in it which is masked from the common eye and that the purchaser at retail is made to believe that he can get more out of the fund than he has put into it, something of value which is not offset in the prices or quality of the articles which he buys."

*Tanner v. Little, 240 U. S. 384
United States Supreme Court [1916]*

This opinion by the Supreme Court of the United States is important to every person in this community who buys food. Note especially the part which reads "...the purchaser at retail is made to believe that he can get more out of the fund than he has put into it, something of value which is not offset in the prices or quality of the articles which he buys."

It is clear in this quotation that the Supreme Court's ruling certainly does not agree with the impression that trading stamp stores have tried to give that stamps are "free" to the customer. They can't be. Stamps add considerably to the cost of doing business and all costs of any business must be paid for by its customers.

If trading stamps truly offered the customer "something for nothing," we would issue them in our stores. But stamps are an added expense and the only way we could recover their cost would be by raising our prices or by lowering our quality standards. We don't believe we would be serving our customers' best interests by doing these things.

We know that we can offer greater value day in and day out by eliminating such expensive "frills" as trading stamps, and giving shoppers the benefit of savings thus made in the form of low prices on quality foods.

You can prove for yourself what effect trading stamps have on food prices by comparing prices on items in a store offering trading stamps with prices on the same items at Safeway. But please make your comparison on all the items on your shopping list, not on just a few advertised prices. Only by comparing all prices can you get the true picture.

And compare meat trim, because price per pound is not always a true indication of meat value. Meat properly trimmed, as Safeway does it, gives you more for your money than meat trimmed the ordinary way.

Compare quality, too.

When you've made your comparisons we believe you will agree that trading stamps are not "free."

Consider, also, these facts: Trading stamps are a device developed by stamp promoters purely for the purpose of making a profit for themselves. Do you believe that stamp promoters perform any useful function in the distribution of food? The promoters sell the stamps to merchants who offer them to their customers.

Remember, that the promoter's price of the stamps to merchants must cover:

1. The cost of printing and distributing stamps, books, and other material.
2. The cost of premium merchandise for which the stamps are redeemed.
3. The promoter's profit on the sale of stamps and on the premium merchandise.
4. The commissions and salaries paid the promoter's salesmen and other employees.

All of these costs, then, add to the merchant's cost of doing business . . . and, as you know, in the final analysis, it's the customer who pays all the costs of any business.

This message about trading stamps is presented because we believe that it is our responsibility to the food shoppers of this community to give the facts about any practice which tends to increase the cost of food.

Trimmed just right for perfect eating

Only this part is perfect-eating steak... and at SAFeway it's the only part you pay for!

Our way of trimming T-bone steaks means that you pay for only the big, tender-eating center portion. You don't pay for excess fat, bone and gristle...these are trimmed off before we weigh and price each steak.

We also remove the heavy tail portion—which is good meat but not perfect steak meat (it needs a different method of cooking). You'll find that many markets leave the tail on and sell it at steak prices—but not Safeway. Another advantage at Safeway: every cut of beef is from top Government grades of meat. All your money back if you don't find Safeway meat perfect-eating every time!

Ike's Backers Laud Choice Of California

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17—Observers today viewed the selection of San Francisco as the site of the 1956 Republican convention, as a bold move by pro-Eisenhower forces.

Some Republican leaders who are less than enthusiastic about Mr. Eisenhower had preferred Chicago and Milwaukee to the other candidates for the convention.

But Chicago was the scene last week-end of a big anti-Eisenhower rally of midwestern Republicans.

Those who attended were identified as the conservative wing of the party and clash frequently with the administration.

GOP national chairman Leonard Hall rejected the "bank" idea that San Francisco was chosen deliberately to get away from the anti-Eisenhower conservative element. But, the convention site and the specific date were chosen, he said, by those intent on running Mr. Eisenhower for a second term.

Warms up Anti-Ike

Hall opened a meeting of the national committee here yesterday, rally the site selection today with an implied warning of the anti-Eisenhower forces to get in step or risk being bowled-over politically.

"These three groups don't trouble me," he said. "Every nation and every political party has them. But the group is small and will get smaller."

He predicted the Republicans can win in 1956 if they run right and bind Mr. Eisenhower as "one of the greatest men any party ever had."

Debuts Time Was Ripe

Hall said Republicans have been talking about the site since the coast convention and decided next year was the time to have it. It will be the first GOP convention on the west coast and the Aug. 20 opening date would be the latest in the party's history.

Democrats recently announced plans to hold their convention in Chicago the week of Aug. 13, provided election laws in several states are changed to make that date possible.

A Democratic party spokesman said that the GOP proposal for a meeting in San Francisco the following week "makes no change in our plan."

Vocational Chief Speaks at School

Charles Q. Dickerson, chairman of the Idaho vocational rehabilitation service was guest speaker at the Twin Falls Business college this week.

Dickerson discussed the "privileges enjoyed by the American people today due to our freedom." He mentioned the leading contributions of Lincoln and Washington to the nation. He stressed that "the preservation of our freedom depends upon each of us to maintain." Dickerson also presented several piano selections.

The college is approved by the state for the training of handicapped persons. Nine students are attending under the state vocational rehabilitation program.

Assignments Set For New Cadets

Candidates planning to enlist in the air force as aircraft observer cadets can be assured of a class assignment within three months of application date according to Maj. Gen. Harry Marsh, Twin Falls air force recruiter.

Marsh said aircraft observer cadets receive 12 weeks of basic officer training and 40 weeks of undergraduate training. On completion of the course, cadets are commissioned second lieutenants. Advanced assignments vary from eight to 34 weeks.

During aircraft observers may perform include those of navigation officer, bombardment officer, photographic reconnaissance officer, communications officer and director radar officer.

Youths Given Red Training And Spy Jobs

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaya, Feb. 17—Communist terrorists are holding indoctrination classes deep in the Malayan jungle to boost their recruiting of youths for guerrilla war.

British security authorities say the rebels have rounded up sympathetic boys and girls from 8 to 16 years old and organizing them into a "Young Devils" league.

Once the "Young Devils" are thoroughly indoctrinated in propaganda, they are sent out as messengers to run information between various terrorist hideouts, or sent back into their home villages to lay foundations for subversive activities in schools and public agencies.

Carry Documents

Youths allegedly carried by security authorities were found to be carrying communist military documents and also knew the location of important red hideouts.

The "Young Devils" are credited with being responsible for much of the propaganda being disseminated in schools in key sections of Malaya. They also are known to have spied movements of security forces and reported this information to terrorist leaders.

In recent weeks clashes between British troops and security forces with communist units have shown a sharp decline. British authorities have forecast that the rebels would continue to large-scale subversive activities and infiltration into schools, labor unions and public agencies in 1955.

"Hard Core" Remains

After nearly seven years of war, the "hard core" of communist terrorists still remains, British authorities said at 8,000—the same figure as at the start of the state of emergency on June 1, 1948—even though the British say the rebels have had casualties of over 10,000 killed, wounded, captured or surrendered.

British and Malayan security forces and civilians have suffered casualties of over 8,000 killed, wounded and missing since the war started.

Right Lane Used for Right Turn

Vehicles "A" is in the proper lane for a right turn, while vehicle "B" is in the wrong lane. The vehicle code says both the approach for right turns and the turn itself shall be made from that position of the roadway, as close as practical to the right hand curb or edge of the street or highway.

Drivers planning to turn right should get in the proper lane well in advance of the turn and give the proper signal indicating the turn far at least the last 100 feet before the intersection. (Staff engraving)

Proper Procedure of Turning Noted; Violations Dangerous

Police Chief Howard Gillette says: intersections. No vehicle shall be used to self-exploratory say that when a car is turning right, this should be done only from the right and without interfering with other traffic, the chief concluded.

Degree Conferred

WENDELL, Feb. 17—Whitel Masons conferred the first degree Monday evening under the direction of L. E. Nicholson, worshipful master.

The lay stated that the driver of a vehicle intending to turn right at an intersection shall approach his turn and execute the turn itself as close as practicable to the right hand curb or edge of the roadway.

Right hand turns may be made against a red light if the vehicle is brought to a complete stop before crossing the stop line and cross walk. Before or while proceeding in such a turn, the driver shall give the right of way to vehicles already in the intersection and to pedestrians traversing the crosswalk or proceeding with the green light who are declared to have the superior right of way.

Chief Gillette emphasizes that if turns are made from the correct lane, over-taking traffic doesn't pass on the side toward which the turn is made.

Disagreeing turning movements, Chief Gillette says U-turns shall not be permitted at intersections equipped with stop lights and at intersections posted against U-turns. U-turns are not allowed between

Construction up, Job Office Notes

An increase in construction activity, with several other construction projects expected to get under way in the near future, was reported this week in the employment summary of the employment security agency here.

Sturley reported a lay-off of 22 persons working in the south-central area of the state as a whole job openings showed an increase.

In the south-central area agricultural openings increased from 18 to 25 persons, while for non-agricultural workers increased from 53 to 72. The total of new jobs was 95.

The agency summary stated that most of the increased demand was for skilled labor in the wholesale trade and for experienced imitators to begin work some time in March. Statewide requests for workers totaled 380.

Psychiatrists Told to Note Handwriting

NEW YORK, Feb. 17 (AP)—The nation's psychiatrists were directed today to have a look at how people unconsciously put as much of themselves into their signatures as they can.

Among examples cited was the signature of Walt Disney in which the letter "W" was drawn to resemble his own head and the "I" was the circular dot over the "I," augmented the head of Mickey Mouse.

Another was the signature of I. J. Fox, the furrier in which one crossing line of the "F" became a definite fork tail, and down the "F" definite fork tail.

Published in Organ.

The directives were published in the official organ of the American Psychiatric Association which gives no standing to handwriting analysts as such.

But Dr. William R. Perl, chief clinical psychologist, United States disciplinary barracks, Ft. Leavenworth, Kans., was given ample space with illustrative examples, to develop the thesis that handwriting reflects the deeper dynamics of the unconscious mind.

Indeed, there seemed a critical note—that psychologists neglect the possibilities of probing people through their handwriting as well as especially their signatures. The child who draws himself "as a roaring tiger or a frightened rabbit" interests the psychologist at once, he said.

Mei Every Day

"Yes—in our daily life we are most likely to see signs of unconscious identification." In addition, "we are apt to see signs of their protective value, we do neglect their interpretive possibilities."

In addition to the unconscious identification, Disney and others cited the signature of the Dutch naval hero, Martin J. Tromp, which in outline resembled his flagship and showed how Mussolini's signature tripled in size as he tried to cover up a large slice of the world's surface.

By analysis of their handwriting, he gave evidence that both Ludwig Beethoven and Charles Dickens had "manic-depressive" traits, on which he commented: "At we know, genius is sometimes manic."

Two Are Fined

JEROME, Feb. 17.—Bobby Dean Messick was fined $3 Tuesday by Police Judge Russell Shaud won a "manic-depressive" trial.

Judge Shaud also fined A. Melvin Macmaster $3 for driving with an inadequate muffler.

Cares for Orphans

The Chinese Nationalist guerrilla woman from the Taichens, "Two-Gun" Huang Fa-mei, smiles broadly as she embraces two orphaned children. She was evacuated with some 100 orphans from the Taichens Islands. She told reporters she would hang up her rifle—she has devoted herself to the orphans. (AP wirephoto via radio from Taipeh)

Eisenhower Inks GI Schooling Bill

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17 (UPI)—Legislation continuing GI education benefits for those who entered the service after Feb. 1 was signed yesterday by President Eisenhower.

The new law, enacted with administration encouragement, nullifies part of a presidential proclamation ending Korean war emergency.

Those in service before Feb. 1 will be eligible for up to 36 months of schooling, figured at the rate of 12 days of schooling for each day of service.

ACCEPTS POST

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 17 (UPI)—Dr. Peter Lindstrom, former husband of Linda Lee, accepted the post of chief of the department of neurosurgery at the University of Utah in Salt Lake City.

Pickup

SPOKANE, Ore., Feb. 17—Janet E. Raist told police yesterday she was followed by a young man who grabbed her purse.

She screamed for help as motorist drove by.

The motorist stopped, picked up the thief and drove off.

Event Observed

RUPERT, Feb. 17.—The Rupert Lions club observed ladies' night Monday at the Masonic center. Dr. A. F. Dalley was master of ceremonies.

Featured in the program was William Alworth, Twin Falls, who gave a chalk talk. Sharon Konig, Peter Lindstrom, former husband of Linda Lee, accepted the post of chief of the department of neurosurgery at the University of Utah in Salt Lake City.

Experts State U.S. Leads in Atomic Fields

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17 (AP)—U. S. officials believe Russia has passed a hydrogen project comparable in continental scope and technical complexity to America's. But most of them also believe, along with Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson, that the country is "well ahead" of Russia in both the quantity and quality of atomic weapons produced.

Direct intelligence of what goes on secretly behind the iron curtain consists in large part of tales told by the winds carrying atomized particles thrown into the atmosphere by Soviet nuclear tests.

Reds Have H-Bomb

These experts say there is a great deal about the kind and efficiency of the tested weapons. Thus this country knows that Russia has tested both large and small A-bombs and H-bombs.

That would be enough to make it clear that Russia must have a vast and far-flung mining, processing, and fabricating operation, because that is what you need to have to make nuclear weapons.

But the United States has other ways of arriving at conclusions about Russia's atomic progress, actual and potential, namely, the detection methods of the intelligence art. They involve: unremittent search for bits and pieces of information, relating them to other bits and pieces and adding them up; and applied analysis to get an intelligence report.

Don't Exactly Guess

So Wilson and other officials aren't exactly guessing when they say the U. S. leads so far in the world's top atomic power.

Still, when you get down to cases on a specific point, even the most informed atomic officials have to rely largely on assumptions.

Banquet Is Served Fathers and Sons

WENDELL, Feb. 17.—The Rev. James R. Crowe, Jerome, was speaker at the annual Father-Son banquet Tuesday evening at the grand auditorium. He was introduced by Frank C. Tucker, toastmaster.

The Rev. J. D. Cregg gave the invocation. Douglas Bradshaw led the singing. The gift basket for the son was given by Robert Caldwell and toast to the fathers was given by Ben Bradshaw.

The Rev. H. H. Barton, Mrs. Billie Bradley, Larry Wayne, Billie Bradley, played the accordion. William Henschel was song leader.

Didn't Make it

In German Cities

NUERNBERG, Germany, Feb. 17—American evangelist Billy Graham has agreed to lead revival meetings for one week each in Essen and Berlin and Dusseldorf on his tour of Europe last year.

Graham presented to big crowds in Berlin and Dusseldorf on his tour of Europe last year.

The evangelist said "there can be no freedom without some measure of risk" and added "absolute security for the state is possible of achievement only in a totalitarian regime and is unattainable in a democracy."

The resolution also condemned "the use of political informers" by our law enforcement agencies.

Ike's School Program Gains No Backing of A.S.A.P.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17 (UPI)—The National Education Association told congress today that President Eisenhower's plan to help states build more schools offers "too little aid and too much control" by the federal government.

William G. Carr, executive secretary of the teaching group, which claims 570,000 members, said the NEA does not support the President's proposal.

20 Cable Cars Go on Auction For High Bids

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 17 (UPI)—Just what we always wanted—a San Francisco cable car for our very own city.

Whether you react this way to cable cars or not, certainly you must know someone who does. Tell him right away he can now buy one for less than straight off a San Francisco hillside.

As casually as the army casts off old sleeping bags and oil drums, Francisco is auctioning cable cars as surplus property. They will go to the highest bidders.

Possibilities Named.

Think' of the possibilities—an outdoor bar, a place to sit in cable cars, or an indestructible toy for the youngsters.

The price? Well, public utilities manager James C. Hanes had figured $300 would be a pretty safe bid but he's not so sure. Interest in the auction has been mounting. His office is getting lots of mail and phone calls from would-be buyers.

San Francisco's sons and sisters have been admiring their "dinkies" ever since they began their hill climbing in the 1870's. They don't fit into the traffic pattern now, however, and cable car futures recently were so uncertain they were abandoned.

Service Curtailed.

The cables are not being abandoned, but the service has been curtailed. The city owns about 80 of the steel and wood cars, some dating back to the 1880's, and only 20 are in use. "Ten are going to be kept in reserve and the other 20

Sealed bids are being accepted now for the first group of 10 to go to the block. The date still unannounced, the bids will be opened and the 10 highest bidders will be the owners of surplus dinkies, f.o.b. the car barn.

Potential bidders are being advised the surplus cars actually are the newest in the fleet.

Ike School-Plans Hailed by Hobby.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Feb. 17 (UPI)—One of the hobbyists told congress yesterday a school building program limited to federal grants could determine whether spur construction to overcome an unprecedented shortage of classroom space, especially of health, education and welfare appeared before the Senate labor committee to urge approval of President Eisenhower's program, featuring federal aid to states in floating school construction.

She said the seven-billion-dollar program would provide 200,000 classroom seats for six million children, in addition to construction undertaken outside the program, in three years.

Foundation Must Give Income Tax

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 17 (UPI)—The ninth U.S. circuit court of appeals has upheld a tax ruling that the Ralph E. Eaton foundation of Phoenix is not a non-profit organization and therefore subject to income tax.

The foundation, established in 1947 to promote charitable and educational enterprises, had appealed a $27,487 income tax lien for the years 1947-1948.

But the circuit court found that the foundation did not qualify for special tax consideration because it was not "organized exclusively for religious, charitable or educational purposes" required by law.

PROGRAM SLATED.

RUPERT, Feb. 17.—The Rev. F. C. Zinn, pastor of the First Capital church in Rupert, announced that the laymen's hour will be heard over KAR 106.1, at 10 a.m. every Sunday. The program features music and talks.

Theme of Fleet

Theme of the fast carriers is vividly etched by these navy Cougar jets roaring high above the Midwest. One of the biggest flattops, The Midway has recently joined the U.S. seventh fleet off Formosa. (NEA telephone)

Fast Carriers, Faster Planes Carry Punch for U.S. Forces

WASHINGTON, D.C., Feb. 17 (UPI)—The fast carrier task force off Formosa is composed of four attack carriers—Exxon, Wasp, Yorktown and Kearsarge—four cruisers and up to 50 destroyers. When the task force attacks, it will be supported by planes, ships, including the large carrier Midway and the attack carrier Princeton. Exact strength of the task force is kept secret.

Guided missiles, integrated with the shipboard computers, dominate the ground-to-ground, Regulus, the air-to-air Sparrow, all weapons which have become operational since the end of the Korean war.

The speed with which this major portion of the seventh fleet was berthed up and moved into best battle position is due to the arrival of Nationalist troops from Taiwan, halting a communist invasion of Formosa; or, if necessary, exchanging first blows of a major war, is another factor which could justify the massive mobilization, the navy believes.

The Formosa crisis proved dramatically the flexibility and potential of this weapon idea, navy spokesmen say. The Chinese Communists couldn't cope with them, they claim.

Most dramatic, deadly action of any hostilities in the Formosa area will be aerial combat, aerial combat probably between the Chinese MiG-17s, which the Chinese Reds have, and fighter planes of the U.S. fleet.

The new F4D-Cougar is the plane designed to shift to long range with the MiG. The Cougar climbs as fast as the MiG turns in as tight a circle, and has a higher ceiling. It's faster than the MiG—able to supercruise at supersonic speed and maintain an effective combat radius of over 800 miles.

Every combat plane with the fleet, including the Cougars, can deliver a nuclear payload, says Capt. George A. Savage, with two conventional piston engines and one jet, capable of carrying the larger types of A-bombs and several of the smaller thermonuclear weapons.

The Regulus can carry an atomic warhead; its performance is short of pin-point accuracy on long-range targets, but it could be used effectively on short range targets, the navy believes.

DETROIT, Feb. 17 (UPI)—Time Inc. has charged the administration's state department may be furnishing evidence that it is more interested than it has ever been in long ago and presidential campaign and in its latest realization.

The last campaign, the U.S. carried on from within the Soviet Union and resistance, slowdowns and cooperation. The administration says, "to stop what it can't be said," by "right direction."

Along Nixon's Caribbean Trip

Above newspaper shows tentative itinerary for Vice President Nixon on his trip to the Caribbean area. He will leave Washington Feb. 6 and visit 12 countries before returning to the nation's capital on March 6. His trouble-shooting mission will probably be to ease tensions in an area long beset by troubles. (NEA)
